PROMOTION

The Tucson Police Department is proud to announce the promotion of Captain Mark Timpf to the rank of Assistant Chief. He has been employed with the Tucson Police Department for 23 years and was most recently assigned as the Commander of the Property Crimes Division within the Investigative Services Bureau. Captain Timpf has been a member of the agency since 1990 and has served as a Captain since October of 2008. In addition to his recent command of the Property Crimes Division, Captain Timpf has also previously commanded the Academy and Operations Division South Patrol. From March 2012 to May 2013, Captain Timpf was tasked with a special assignment by the City Manager in serving as the Interim Director of the Tucson Convention Center. His experience as a Department Director will prove invaluable in his pending assignment as Assistant Chief. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Texas, and he has attended the Police Executive Research Forum's Senior Management Institute for Police at Harvard University as well as the FBI National Academy. Assistant Chief Timpf will take command of the Field Services Bureau beginning on December 15, 2013. His promotion fills an Assistant Chief position that has remained vacant since January of 2011.
